

THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

THOMAS M. GREEN, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1860.

In another column we publish the speech of W. H. Wadsworth, Esq., before the 23rd of February Convention. The speech has been revised by the author, and must therefore be correct. We owe an apology to our readers for not having published it long ago, but the pressure of the Legislative reports must be our excuse. We publish it now to the exclusion of other matter. It is a speech of masterly ability, and does credit to the author. Mr. Wadsworth will do well to stand by the cause of the Opposition in his canvass of the State.

The communication of Chancellor Logan, declining to comply with the provision of the Louisville Police bill, which makes it his duty to appoint Police Commissioners for that city, will be found in to-day's paper. Judge Logan's refusal to act is caused by his opinion that the act is unconstitutional in many of its provisions. His communication is a careful and searching analysis of the practical absurdities of this most iniquitous measure, and will be read with great interest.

Wagon's Mirror of Italy.—The hour at which we go to press prevents us from giving a notice of this beautiful work of art from actual observation. It was exhibited in our city for the first time last night. The exhibition continues to-night and to-morrow night. We give below the opinion of it by a gentleman who has seen it and who is well qualified to speak of its merits. We advise our friends who have not seen it to go to night. Hon. JOHN NEAL, the celebrated poet and author, says:

Italy.—Mr. Editor: The most beautiful Panorama of the most beautiful country in the world being on exhibition at Lancaster Hall, I was induced to visit it last evening, and found it grand beyond description. There are scenes in this panorama which would seem to be of justice. The glorious coloring of earth and sky, the wondrous blending of tints, which makes an Italian sunset so beautiful, must be seen to be appreciated. Through two hundred chosen views—through Northern, Southern and Central Italy, from Como on the Venetian—the spectator is led by music, by the voice of Peter, the angel and Vesuvius. These scenes are so finely finished, that I learn they are frequently exhibited by day, light, and will bear the closest scrutiny with an overglaze. Who would not desire to visit in person that lovely land—

"Too beautiful for tyrant's rule, Too good for tyrant's duty;
Would that his fate were less of love, Or strength as well as beauty."

The land of Caesar, of the Popes, of the great masters of modern art; the land of Shakespeare, of Goethe and Byron's inspiration! It is, alas, too far away for all who would visit it; but here, to the very life, we may see it presented at our own doors, and travel it from end to end, with a well-versed guide, who will not tire of our company. The lecture by the gentlemanly proprietor is well delivered, and of itself worth more than the small sum charged at the door; and the order and pleasing manner in which the entertainment is put upon the stage, and conducted, adds much to its character and interest. I am glad to learn that the Mirror is to exhibit for a few days longer, and would recommend all lovers of the beautiful to see it.

JOHN NEAL.

Portland, Maine, Nov. 5, 1858.

DEATH OF MAJOR BARTON.—Major William Barton died at his residence in Bourbon county, on the 5th inst., in the 77th year of his age. He was born in New Jersey, but came to Kentucky with his father when but five years of age. He has lived upon the farm upon which he died ever since the year 1785. In 1812 he volunteered as a private in Capt. Garrard's troop of light horse, and served with distinction during the term of his enlistment. Twice during the campaign it was his fortune to encounter an Indian in single combat, and in both instances the savages fell by his hand. In one of them, as the enemy was in the act of hurling his tomahawk, he rushed upon him, and, rising in his stirrups, brought down his sabre with one sweep of his strong right arm, cleaving the head of the painted savage through to the chin.

THE LOSS OF THE HUNGARIAN.—Halifax papers of March 2d state that a numerous corps of divers had reached the wreck of the Hungarian, whose investigations may lead to some important discoveries in regard to the loss of that vessel and the bodies of her passengers and crew. The Halifax Journal says: "From what we can learn in regard to the position of the wrecked vessel when last seen, she must have struck about midnight, when all but the watch on deck were in their beds, and thus, probably, they perished."

LOVELL H. ROUSSEAU, Esq., has received the nomination of the Opposition party of Louisville for the unexpired term of the Senate, made vacant by the death of Hon. John C. Lyons.

JOHN W. BARR, Esq., declines the Democratic nomination for the same position.

From the Louisville Journal.

The Police Bill.—Letter from Chancellor Logan.

The third section of an Act approved February 29, 1860, "to provide a more efficient Police Department in the City of Louisville," provides that the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court shall, within twenty days after the passage of the act, appoint two discreet persons, qualified voters of said city, as members of a Police Board for said city, and may remove them at any time and appoint others, or fill vacancies occurring by death, resignation, or otherwise, who before entering upon their duties shall make oath faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties of their office. Provided, however, that when the Mayor of said city shall belong to the Democratic party, the said appointees shall be of the opposite political party; and when the said Mayor shall belong to the party in opposition to the Democratic party, and said appointees shall be removed as often as may be necessary to carry out this provision. And provided further that if the said Chancellor should fail to make said appointments within twenty days from the passage of this act, all the powers hereby conferred upon him shall be exercised by the Governor, Sec. &c.

The fourth section of the act provides that the Mayor of said city ex officio, and the said appointees of the Chancellor or Governor, shall form a Police Board, and that they shall meet at such place and times as they may determine, and any two of them may act in any case and discharge any duty of the Board.

And by reference to sections 2, 5, 7, 8, 11, 12, and 13th of the act, it will be seen that the powers conferred, and the duties enjoined, upon the two officers, whom the Chancellor is directed to appoint, are of an important, responsible and permanent nature—and that they are partly executive and partly judicial in their character. For after the second Saturday, in May, 1861, and in every second year thereafter, the Mayor, with the advice and consent of said two members, is required to appoint a Chief of Police for the term of two years—and, with their advice and consent he is immediately authorized to appoint any number of supernumerary watchmen for a term not exceeding two years, and he is authorized to fill vacancies in the offices of Chief of Police and supernumerary watchmen.

And the Board are authorized to approve or reject the bonds which the various officers elected or appointed under the act are required to give; and to fill any one of the offices, for seven days after his election or appointment, to give such a bond as the Board will approve, operate to vacate the office; and the vacancy thus made is to be filled as other vacancies are to be filled.

And the Board are authorized to employ a clerk upon salary, to keep a record of the proceedings—and they are not only authorized to summon and attach witnesses, and try, and remove or suspend from office the Chief of Police or his assistants (who are appointed to office by said Board)—but they are authorized to try any watchman or any other member of the Police force, now or hereafter filling office, (though elected thereto by the people), and to remove or suspend them from office. And it is provided that the pay of any removed or suspended officer shall cease immediately after his removal or suspension.

These important judicial and executive powers to be exercised in future in reference to the Chief of Police, and the watchmen of the several wards in the City of Louisville, are by this act jointly conferred upon the Mayor, (who is elected for a term by the people) and upon the two associate discreet persons—qualified voters of the city—who by the act are neither to be elected for a term by the people nor appointed for a term by the Chancellor.

Touching these two "discreet persons," the act simply provides that the Chancellor shall appoint them as members of a Police Board, and may remove them at any time and appoint others, or fill vacancies occurring by death, resignation, or otherwise. Provided, however, that when the Mayor of said city shall belong to the Democratic party, the said appointees shall belong to the opposite political party, and when the said Mayor shall belong to the party in opposition to the Democratic party, the said appointees shall be of the Democratic party; and said appointees shall be removed as often as may be necessary to carry out this provision.

It is evident, then, from the act that one of the official qualifications prescribed for said two judicial and executive officers is that they must be Democrats if the Mayor belongs to the Opposition party, and that they must be of the opposite political party if the Mayor belongs to the Democratic party; and not only so, but it is also necessary, as a qualification for office, that they should continue to be Democrats if the Mayor be of opposite politics, or Democrats if the Mayor be of opposite politics if the Mayor is a Democrat.

For, if the two "discreet" officers should at any time abandon their political party and join the Mayor's party, or if the Mayor should desert his party and join the party of his two associates, the result, in either case, would be to disqualify the two associates for their judicial and executive duties.

So that their tenure of office may at any time be broken either by their own change of opinion or by the Mayor's change of opinion.

But their tenure of office is even more frail than that. For even though they should continue to preserve a constant antagonism in politics between themselves and the Mayor by changing whenever the Mayor changes, and not changing unless the Mayor changes, they may still be removed at any time by the Chancellor.

For the act confers upon the Chancellor absolute and arbitrary power to remove them at any time. It is plain therefore that they are mere tenants at will of the appointing power, and that they are not elected nor appointed for a term nor during good behavior.

Now the question is, whether the act requires the Chancellor to appoint said two associate officers—with such powers as are conferred upon them—is a constitutional law.

This question must be determined before I can exercise the power attempted to be given. With the mere policy of the law I have of course nothing whatever to do. And it behooves me to be very cautious in pronouncing an act of the Legislature to be unconstitutional.

But I am constrained to the conclusion that the act approved February 29th, 1860, so far as it directs the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court to appoint, upon the terms therein prescribed, the two associate members of the Police Board for the City of Louisville, is unconstitutional and void.

It seems to me that whether the two associate officers be regarded as judicial, or executive, or ministerial officers; or whether they be regarded as city officers, county officers, or State officers, it was not competent for the Legislature to vest in the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court the power of appointing them during the will of the Chancellor and during the continuance of a political antagonism between them and the Mayor, and without prescribing any fixed term to the office.

One of the most striking features of the new Constitution is, that it prescribes a "term" for every permanent office designated in the instrument; and even in reference to officers for towns and cities, and counties and districts not specially named, and inferior State officers, it specially provides for the instrument expressly directs that they shall be elected or appointed for definite "TERMS."

Thus, article 6, section 6, says that "officers for towns and cities shall be elected for such terms and in such manner, and with such qualifications as may be prescribed by law."

And section 10, of the same article, says that "the General Assembly may provide for the election or appointment for a term not exceeding four years, of such other county or district ministerial and executive officers as shall from time to time be necessary and proper."

And section 3, section 25, says that "inferior officers, not specially provided for in this Constitution, may be appointed or elected in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, for a term not exceeding four years."

And article 8, section 11, says that "all civil officers for the Commonwealth at large shall reside within the State, and all districts, county, or town officers within their respective districts, counties, or towns, (excepted of town excepted), and shall keep their offices at such places therein as may be prescribed by law."

And article 13, section 28, says that "the General Assembly shall not create any office the appointment to which shall be for a longer time than for a term of years—thus changing the provision of the old Constitution which prohibited the General Assembly from creating any office, the appointment to which should be for a longer time than during good behavior."

Now it seems to me that the two associate officers who are to act with the Mayor are invested with judicial as well as executive powers—and that they are officers for the City of Louisville—and as such they should both be elected by the people and for some definite period of time—in other words, for a term of years. But if I am mistaken supposing that they are officers for the City of Louisville, they must then certainly be officers either of a county, or a district, or the State; and whether they be one or the other the lesser and smaller of the constitution require that they should be appointed for a term of years, and not during good behavior, nor during the will of the Chancellor, nor during their continuance in Democracy, or Whiggery, or Americanism, or Republicanism, or Northern, Southern, or middle Divisionism, or during the holding of any set of opinions, or whatever character—either political or religious.

It is just as competent for the Legislature to prescribe a particular set of religious opinions as a qualification for office as to prescribe a particular set of political opinions. It is just as competent to declare by law that the Chancellor should appoint to a judgeship two discreet persons who were Protestants if the Mayor had been a Catholic (and vice versa), as to declare by law that the Chancellor should appoint to a judgeship two discreet persons who were Democrats, if the Mayor had belonged to the Opposition party (and vice versa). In the one case religious freedom would be infringed, and in the other case political freedom would be infringed. According to the bill of rights, civil rights, privileges, or capacities cannot be diminished or enlarged on account of a man's religion. And according to the bill of rights no man or set of men are entitled to exclusive privileges but in consideration of public services. And by the constitution all elections are to be free and equal—and absolute arbitrary power exists no where in a Republic. And it does seem to me that to make a man's qualification for office depend upon his political opinions and party, is a gross perversion of that expression in the constitution which reserves to the Legislature the power of prescribing by law the qualifications of a certain class of officers.

For these reasons and others that could be multiplied, I conclude that that portion of the act which confers upon the Mayor and the two associates equity jurisdiction which the act of the 29th of February 1860, confers and imposes upon the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court.

MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT.

Its wonderful effects and consequent popularity—perhaps no article in the history of the Materia Medica ever acquired the same patronage, was subjected to the same number of severe and different tests, and met with so few failures as the Mustang Liniment. It has been styled a Panacea for all external Wounds, Cuts, Swellings, Sprains, Bruises, or Eruptions on Man or Beast. It is so far a medicine of surprising virtue, that Physicians are compelled to prescribe it, and from some remarkable cures of Chronic and Distorted Rheumatic cases it has naturally attracted much attention from the first scientific minds of the age. No family can afford to be without a bottle of the Mustang Liniment in the house. Beware of imitations. The genuine is sold by respectable Dealers in all parts of the world.

AYER'S Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chills, Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a safe and sure cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this dangerous must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER and AGUE from the system and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its preliminary symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where FEVER and AGUE prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection.

It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysteria, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures the disease entirely. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons traveling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC, as so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them.
Their purgative properties search and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is enabled to find his health and energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Costive-ness, Headache, Indigestion, Pain in the Bowels, Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in the Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the bowels or obstruction of its functions. They are an excellent alterative for the renovation of the blood and the restoration of tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate.
While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

John Bull's Compound Pectoral

WILD CHERRY.

THIS seal of public approbation has been so unanimously fixed upon this medicine that the proprietor feels it to be his duty to call the attention of all those persons to it who are suffering from, or who are threatened with, affections of the Lungs or Throat. Its use is the active principle of the Wild Cherry Bark, but it contains also, in proper proportions, other of the most valuable remedies of the Materia Medica. Its compound parts are of the most delicate and agreeable nature, and the proprietor makes no secret of the fact, who, as a general rule, prefer using his preparation to any prescription which they can have prepared by a druggist.

It can be procured from druggists and country stores everywhere.

HEALTH RESTORED!

DR. MOTT'S Chalybeate Pills.

An aperient and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen, of high medical authority and extraordinary efficacy in each of the following complaints, viz.: DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMA-CATION, DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHEA, CONSTI-PATION, CHOLERA, BILIOUS COLIC, CHOLERA MORBUS, LIVER COMPLAINTS, RHEUMA-

MITTENT FEVERS, NEURALGIA, OXHEMIC HEADACHES, FEMALE WEAKNESS, MIS-MENSTRUATION, WHITES, CHLOROSIS, and STUPIDITY ON THE FACE, ROUGHNESS OF THE SKIN, etc.

The Iron being absorbed by the blood, and circulating through the whole system, no part of the body can escape their truly wonderful influence.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can for a moment be superior to it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise unhealthy complexion, and general debility in all cases of general debility (due to chlorosis, etc.), its effects are delightfully renovating. No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and perfectly permanent effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and useful exercise, immediately follow its use.
It is a superior and general restorative in all cases of debility and general restoration, no superior and no substitute.

It is a superior and general restorative in all cases of

THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

Only One Dollar Per Annum!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!!

The First Volume of the "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the June number, and the Second Volume will commence in July. We promised a year ago to try and give to the Agricultural and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? He who gives us a fair-equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the Kentucky Farmer? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and try and send us one or more additional names for the SECOND VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume have about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish our Second Volume without the aid of a subscription to pay its expenses or not. The publication of the June number has redeemed that pledge. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a patron's Kentucky paper.

The "KENTUCKY FARMER" will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable in advance.
It is the smallest amount charged for foreign paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, on paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail, at our risk. Letters addressed to us need not be postpaid.
